

CULTURAL COMMITTEE

Title: “A Kaleidoscope of culture: Unforgettable college cultural activities”

INTRODUCTION

Colleges are melting pots of cultures, where students from various backgrounds come together to pursue knowledge and personal growth. The Cultural Committee plays a pivotal role in fostering an environment where this diversity is not only acknowledged but celebrated.

the committee endeavors to create spaces where students can share and revel in the richness of each other's cultures.

While the spotlight often shines on the events and initiatives organized by the Cultural Committee, it's the dedicated individuals behind the scenes who truly bring its vision to life,

The Heart and Soul of the Cultural Committee - Its Members

1. Veena – HOD/FT
2. Ayesha Patel
3. Vishveshwaraya
4. Nidhi – L/CE
5. Sapna Ravindran – L/FT
6. Prahalad Kumar – L/ME
7. Pushpa – office

In this blog, we'll explore the magic of this cultural extravaganza and impact which was held on 19th and 20th of march 2024.

it has on fostering unity among students of our polytechnic!

Section1: Celebrating Instrumental Music and Song's

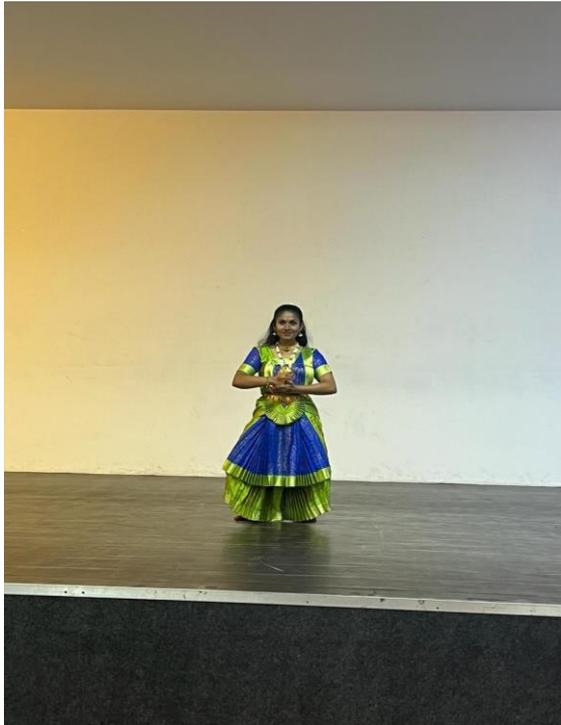

Instrumental music and song contribute immeasurably to the cultural tapestry of college campuses. Through concerts, recitals, and music festivals, students and faculty alike have the opportunity to showcase their talents and share their passion for music with the broader community. These events not only enrich the cultural landscape of the campus but also foster a sense of pride and belonging among students. Below are some of the amazing performances given by our students

Section2: Dance to the Rythm

Prepare to be captivated as we explore the dynamic dance routines that set the stage on fire. The marvels movements, the energetic choreography and vibrant costumes brought the entire crowd to their feet from traditional folk dance to contemporary style, diverse dance forms that showcased their unique cultural heritage. The participants proudly displaying their traditional costumes highlighting the integrated details, vibrant colours and rich symbols, this cultural activity truly transported us to different parts of the world.

Let's look into some of the beautiful performances given by our students

Section3: Story told by the strokes of Mehandi

the intricate design on our hands, Mehendi is an art form that speaks of occasion, tradition, joy and ceremony. Indian culture has the essence of Mehendi embedded in every soul. The participants were motivated to bring out their hidden talents of drawing Mehendi with patience and perseverance. With love they unleashed a special story through every stroke and curve of the design

Here are the magnificent designs made by the young skillful participants.

Section4: Color and fashion go hand in hand with lovely nails

You can never go wrong with too many colors introducing nail art competition that stirred up the passion of colors in our participants. From Pop colors that bring attention to subtle colors that radiate elegance and topping up with beautiful designs that compliments yourself. Show casting the nail art done by creative bold artists.

Section5: Creative culinary adventures: Cooking without fire in the Students kitchen nothing gets in the way of a chef whose plan is to make food with love for everyone, no matter the confrontation.

Cooking without fire was a challenging yet an interesting competition that forced the participants to make dishes that were nothing like before, then awaited to be tasted by the judges, Followed by the crowd of friends and teachers. Below are some amazing dishes made by the younger chefs of Ramaiah.

Section6: The eye-catching rangoli competition took place on 20th of march with a lot of enthusiastic participants who created lovely designs. Looking at the traditional beauty of every rangoli the judges sure had a hard time choosing a few out of so many beautiful rangoli. Below are the captivating designs done by the girls of Ramaiah polytechnic

CONCLUSION

We have only saturated the surface of the captivating cultural activity that took place in our college and together we created unforgettable memories and experience.

